Brian Hagedon Joins GLHN as Lead Architectural Designer
Local architect is known for responsive architectural solutions

Tucson, Arizona (July 22, 2009)— Tucsonan Brian Hagedon has joined GLHN Architects & Engineers, Inc. as the firm's Lead Architectural Designer. A graduate of the University of Arizona College of Architecture, Hagedon was employed by GLHN from 1980 until 1992 and, during his career, has designed schools, community centers, churches and medical facilities throughout Southern Arizona.

In announcing Hagedon's return, GLHN's Principal in Architecture, David Grigsby, AIA, LEED AP said, "Brian Hagedon is recognized as a successful designer because he builds personal relationships with his clients. He is dedicated not only to the client's project, but to the client himself, producing responsive and well-founded architectural solutions. Mr. Hagedon will be a great asset to GLHN's integrated architectural and engineering design approach."
